

GENERAL MEETING 2026 OF WWFN MEMBERS

DO YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS? WE HAVE THE ANSWERS!

1. Can my spouse attend the General Meeting (GM) if they are not a member?

Only members may participate in the GA and will be admitted to the room.

2. Does the WWFN take care of booking rooms?

Yes! You must answer the questions in section 4 of the "Registration Form," and we will make the reservations. You should not contact the hotel directly.

3. I am an associate member, and my spouse has passed away. Can I attend the GM?

Yes, if there was no divorce, legal separation, or end of cohabitation prior to death.

4. Can the mileage allowance be calculated taking a boat into account

For members residing on the north shore of the St. Lawrence River, the WWFN will calculate the travel distance as if they were travelling from Québec.

5. Can I cancel my registration for the GM?

Yes, you can, but you must notify the WWFN promptly.

6. Will my children be able to come and eat with me?

Only registered members and participants in the GM will have access to lunch and dinner on June 6 during the event.

7. Will there be childcare during the event?

There will be no childcare during the GM.

8. Can I submit a resolution on the day of the GM?

No, the deadline for submitting your proposal is April 7, 2026. No proposals will be accepted after this date. The new procedure set out in the Code of General and Special Assembly Procedures has been summarized for you. Please refer to the document sent in this regard.

GENERAL MEETING 2026 OF WWFN MEMBERS

9. Who are the members of the Proposal Analysis Committee?

The Committee is made up of Claude Brière, representative of the Council of Elders, Nathalie Rioux, assistant to the Grand Council, and Léonie Boutin, legal advisor replacing Laurence Maher.

10. Are there any other changes to the meeting process?

The adoption of the Code of General and Special Assembly Procedures in December 2025 brought about certain changes in the method for submitting proposals. However, on the day of the meeting, the process will be the same.

11. Will I receive confirmation that I am registered?

Yes. You will receive confirmation of your registration status.

